THE NEW YEAR & REVIEWING THE OLD

As we all know, few issues create the fierce internal debate at Flash headquarters in downtown Manhattan as much as those issues which review our own achievements in publishing. "Stringer of the Year" has resulted in emotions ranging from agony to ecstasy, and finding the best article by a non-stringer has in past changed the face of our News Department. Perhaps the most eagerly awaited outcomes related to Photographic Image of the Year. By its

(Not pictured: award recipients Stringers Mr. Mario Manera and Master David Mason.) Subsequent to the award Ms. Melanie Bunch joined the News Staff.

2015 did not bring us a single "Stringer of the Year," but rather brought deserved national recognition to the entire News Department of the TKD Flash, sharing in the 2015 Fulitzer Prize. In commemoration of the same, plaques acknowledging the award were furnished Grand Master Renee' Sereff, DFS, Ms. Roselyn Romberg, DFS, Sr. Master Ricky Todd, DFS, and Stringers Mrs. Corrine Sroykum (here represented by Master William Dubbeld), Master Guy Williams (represented here by Mrs. Arlene Slocum), Ms. Lisa Eastin, (represented by Master Dustin Stephenson), and Master Robert Martin. nature, the latter category has excluded the excellent efforts in the annual kids' art contest and thus confined itself to photography: it is not an award to a photographer but to the image produced for many reasons. We are pleased, however, to present the results of our deliberations.

"Best Article by a non-Stringer for 2015" goes to "On the Military Beat" by Mr. Patrick Finan, from the January 2015 issue. A special commendation for a Stringer article was given to "Welcome to White Oak TKD" from the June issue, written by Ms. Lisa Eastin.

On December 5 there was a Black Belt Testing at Big Dog Taekwon-Do in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Article on page 6.

Sir:

On Saturday, November 14th the New England region held its annual Concord Invitational Tournament. Competitors from schools around the region competed in this fun all-ranks, all-ages event. This was the second year that Breaking was included, to supplement the usual Patterns and Sparring competitions. As in past years, competition was friendly but fierce, and Referees were put to the test on more than one occasion. The tournament ended on a spirited note with the much-anticipated "Pick Your Own Black Belt" sparring event.

Competitors up to age 8 are permitted to select the Black Belt of their choice, from any school and any rank, for a one-minute round. Mr. John Murphy, head of Concord TKD and host of the tournament, reserves the role of Center Referee for himself (except when he can't keep himself from joining in the fun!) Thanks to all who attended, and we look forward to a great Northeast Challenge tournament in the spring! Sr. Master Van Hecke,

We had our last test for the year on December 5th. As you see from the photo it was a small group. We are well into winter here. The day after the temperature dropped to -20 degrees at nite. The birds that are here are tough. The snow birds are gone.

A happy New Year to all and may the U.S.T.F. prosper.

A new student enrolls at the Academy of Martial Arts, Grafton, Wisconsin. Zach Kelley, right, is in the third generation of his family to study Taekwon-Do. On his left is his more seasoned cousin Aniela Van Hecke, who will be showing Zach the mysteries of that last belt loop in due course.

The New England Region conducted a Black Belt test on Sunday, November 22nd. Grand Master Louis Reyes presided, his first BB test as a IXth Dan. Mr. Tom Gibbons, head of Victory TKD, tested successfully for IV Dan. Mr. Alex Gough, of Giorgio's Academy of TKD, achieved III Dan. Mr. Elijah Smith, of Victory TKD and a student of Mr. Gibbons, tested for I Dan, along with mother and son combo Renata Pomponi and Noah Büchner. Congratulations, Black Belts! Sir:

We at Big Dog TaeKwon-Do have news to share with the USTF. First we held a black belt testing on December 5 which was supposed to be for both Mr. Shaun Brown and Ms. Mikayla Burke but due to circumstances beyond anyone's control (more on that later), only Mr. Brown tested that day. But he did a wonderful job and made all of his instructors and fellow students very proud.

I am attaching a picture of Mr. Brown with Mrs. Marianne Armstrong (on the right, at left) and myself after his very excellent job. At dinner that night, Mr. Brown was inducted into the Big Dog Black Belt club and given the nickname Hero because he's been there whenever we've needed him.

Ms. Burke was unable to test because on the day before she was diagnosed with appendicitis and rushed into surgery to have her appendix removed. In a "first time ever" for Big Dog Taekwon-Do, Mrs. Armstrong and I were able to be there when her now-fiancee, also a student of ours, Mr. Aaron Dull, proposed to her in the recovery room. So while Ms. Burke hasn't yet been able to test, that will be forthcoming soon but she is sporting a new lovely engagement ring. And we have a wedding to plan! [Editor's Note: Nice recovery...]

And on one other note, Sir, I would like to point out that this testing was a difficult day for all of us at Big Dog because we knew that Katie Fairchild would have been testing had she not been tragically taken from us this past May 3. She was 16, lost in an auto accident, a much beloved student. We all missed her terribly, but Mr. Brown did an excellent job of representing all three of this class's candidates.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sharon Spungen
3rd Dan, Big Dog Taekwon-Do
